Economics 8534 : Economic History of the United States
Spring 202X • TBD • Monday · Wednesday • TBD

Instructor: Taylor Jaworski • Email: taylor.jaworski@colorado.edu
Office: Econ 14C • Office Hours: by appointment

Description
This is a course in the economic history. The goal is to provide PhD students an introduction to debates, methods, and recent topics in the economic history of the American past. Topics covered include institutions and culture, agricultural development, transportation and economic integration, immigration, innovation, the Great Depression, regions and cities, the welfare state, media and politics, and interventions in foreign affairs by the US government.
We will emphasize the role of history in understanding economic process as well as the use of theory, data, and computation in addressing research questions.

Grading
Participation (10%): Students are required to attend class and actively participate.

Data Assignment (10%): Students are required to complete one assignment using data from the Historical Statistics of the United States and ICPSR. This is due on 1/29.

Replication (30%, 10% presentation + 20% assignment): Students are required to complete a presentation and replication of one published economic history paper. The presentations will take place on 2/1 and 2/3 and the replication will be due on 3/5.

Paper (50%, 5% proposal presentation + 15% final presentation + 30% final paper): Students are required to complete a presentation and final research paper on an economic history topic of their choice. The proposal presentations will take place on 3/15. The final presentations will take place on 4/26 and 4/28 and the final paper will be due on 5/3.

Data
In addition, students should familiarize themselves with census data at the Integrated Public Use Microdata Series (IPUMS) and county-level data at the Inter-University Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR). IPUMS includes complete count data for the US Census from 1850 to 1940 (except 1940). These data can be combined with information from the Census Linking Project to create samples of individuals or family members linked over time. From ICPSR, students should download the following series: Historical, Demographic, Economic, and Social Data, 1790-2002 (#2896); United States Agriculture Data, 1840-2012
(#35206); and U.S. County-Level Natality and Mortality Data, 1915-2007 (#36603).
Reading
The readings marked with a “⋆” are required and should be completed before first class in the week listed. The readings marked with a “†” provide methodological background and are optional (but strongly encouraged). The Oxford History of the United States series provides excellent overviews of the United States since the founding. Students interested in conducting research in economic history should become familiar with these volumes. I am happy to provide other recommendations on specific time periods or topics that you may be interested in.

Course Outline

1/20: Introduction
Goldin, “The Economist as Detective”
Collins et al, “The Future of Economic History,” JEH
Dippel & Leonard, “Not-So-Natural Experiments in History,” JHPE
*Jaworski, “Specification and Structure in Economic History,” EEH
*Eichengreen, “Economic History and Economic Policy,” JEH

1/25: Paths of Development
Acemoglu & Robinson, Why Nations Fail
Engerman & Sokoloff, “Institutions, Factor Endowments, and Paths of Development,” JEP
*Dell, “The Persistent Effects of Peru’s Mining Mita,” Ecta
Abad & Maurer, “The Long Shadow of History?”

1/27: Indigenous Peoples
*Feir et al, “The Slaughter of the Bison and Reversal of Fortunes on the Great Plains”
*Dippel, “Forced Coexistence and Economic Development,” Ecta

2/1: Early American Institutions
North, Structure and Change in Economic History
Bardhan, “State and Development” JEL
*Link & Maggor, “The United States As A Developing Nation,” Past & Present
Lamoreaux & Wallis, “Fixing the Machine that Would Not Go of Itself”
2/3: The Role of Culture
Fischer, Albion's Seed
Woodard, American Nations
Ball et al, “Clustering of 770,000 Genomes,” Nature Communications
Giuliano & Nunn, “Understanding Cultural Persistence and Change,” ReStud
*Bazzi, Fiszbein, & Gebresilasse, “Frontier Culture,” Ecta

2/8: Slavery
Fogel & Engerman, Time on the Cross
Wright, “Slavery and American Agricultural History,” Agricultural History
*Hilt, “Revisiting Time on the Cross After 45 Years,” Capitalism
Rhode & Olmstead, “Slave Productivity in Cotton Picking”

2/10: The Postbellum South
Ransom & Sutch, One Kind of Freedom
Alston & Ferrie, Southern Paternalism and the American Welfare State
*Logan, “Do Black Politicians Matter?” JEH

2/15: Agriculture
Rhode & Olmstead, Creating Abundance
*Davis et al, “Harvests and Business Cycles in Nineteenth-Century America,” QJE
*Lange et al, “The Impact of the Boll Weevil, 1892-1932,” JEH
*Fiszbein, “Agricultural Diversity, Structural Change and LR Development,” AEJ: Macro

2/22 & 2/24: Railroads
Fogel, Railroads and American Economic Growth
†Redding & Rossi-Hansberg, “Quantitative Spatial Economics,” ARE
†Murphy et al, “Industrialization and the Big Push,” JPE
*Donaldson & Hornbeck, “Railroads and American Economic Growth,” QJE
*Donaldson, “Railroads of the Raj,” AER
3/1: Globalization
Osterhammel, The Transformation of the World
O’Rourke & Williamson, Globalization and History
Jaworski & Keay, “Openness to Trade and the Spread of Industrialization”
Redding & Fajgelbaum, “Trade, Structural Transformation and Development”

3/3: The Age of Mass Migration
Hatton & Williamson, The Age of Mass Migration: Causes and Economic Impact
Abramitzky & Boustan, “Immigration in American Economic History,” JEL
Abramitzky, Boustan, & Eriksson, “A Nation of Immigrants,” JPE
Karadja & Prawitz, “Exit, Voice, and Political Change,” JPE

3/8: Industrialization
Hounshell, From the American System to Mass Production, 1800-1932
Wright, “The Origins of American Industrial Success, 1879-1940” AER
Goldin & Sokoloff, “The Relative Productivity Hypothesis of Industrialization,” QJE
Fiszbein et al, “New Technologies, Productivity, and Jobs”

3/10: Innovation
Mowery & Rosenberg, Technology and the Pursuit of Economic Growth
Khan, The Democratization of Invention
Schmookler, “Economic Sources of Inventive Activity,” JEH
Lampe & Moser, “Do Patent Pools Encourage Innovation?” JEH

3/15: The Welfare State Before 1940
Fishback & Kantor, A Prelude to the Welfare State
Alston & Ferrie, “Paternalism in Agricultural Labor Contracts in the US South,” AER
Aizer et al, “The LR Impact of Cash Transfers to Poor Families,” AER
Fetter & Lockwood, “Government Old-Age Support and Labor Supply,” AER
3/17: The Great Depression
Fishback, “How Successful Was the New Deal?” *JEL
Richardson & Troost, “Monetary Intervention Mitigated Banking Panics,” *JPE
*Mitchener & Richardson, “Network Contagion and Interbank Amplification,” *JPE

3/22: World War II
Wilson, Destructive Creation
Gross & Sampat, “Organizing Crisis Innovation”
*Brunet, “Stimulus on the Home Front”
*Jaworski, “World War II and the Industrialization of the American South”

3/24: Women War on Poverty
Goldin, Understanding the Gender Gap
Goldin, “The Quiet Revolution,” *AER P&P
Goldin, “The Role of World War II in the Rise of Women’s Employment,” *AER
*Jaworski, “You’re in the Army Now” *JEH
*Fogli et al, “Mothers and Sons,” *QJE

3/29: The Great Migration
Wilkerson, The Warmth of Other Suns
Boustan, Competition in the Promised Land
*Boustan, “Competition in the Promised Land,” *JEH
*Derenoncourt, “Can You Move to Opportunity?”

3/31: Race in Postwar America
Loury, The Anatomy of Racial Inequality
Wilson, The Truly Disadvantaged
*Cook et al, “Competition and Discrimination in Public Accommodations”
*Kuziemko & Washington, “Why Did the Democrats Lose the South?” *AER
4/5 & 4/7: Cities & Regions
Glaeser, Cities, Agglomeration, and Spatial Equilibrium
Breinlich, Ottaviano, & Temple, “Regional Growth and Regional Decline,” Handbook
Heim, “Structural Changes: Regional and Urban,” Handbook
*Shertzer & Walsh, “Racial Sorting and the Emergence of Segregation,” ReStat
*Kitchens, “The Role of Publicly Provided Electricity in Economic Development,” JEH
*Kline & Moretti, “Local Economic Dev, Agg Economies, and the Big Push,” QJE
Eckert & Peters, “Spatial Structure Change”

4/12 & 4/14: Highways
Nall, The Road to Inequality
Michaels, “Did Highways Cause Suburbanization?” ReStat
Herzog, “National Trans Networks, Market Access, and Regional Econ Growth,” JUE
Baum-Snow, “Did Highways Cause Suburbanization?” QJE
Brinkman & Lin, “Freeway Revolts”
Jaworski et al, “Highways and Globalization”

4/19: The War on Poverty
Bailey & Danziger (eds), Legacies of the War on Poverty
Bailey & Duquette, “How the US Fought the War on Poverty,” JEH
*Bailey & Goodman-Bacon, “The War on Poverty’s Experiment in Public Medicine,” AER
*Jaworski & Kitchens, “National Policy for Regional Development,” ReStat

4/21: Foreign Affairs
Immerwahr, How to Hide an Empire
Berger et al, “Commercial Imperialism?” AER
Kuziemko & Werker, “How Much Is a Seat on the Security Council Worth?” JPE
*Dube, Kaplan, & Naidu, “Coups, Corporations, and Classified Information,” QJE
*Dell & Querubin, “Nation Building Through Foreign Intervention,” QJE
4/26: Media

Gentzkow, Glaeser, & Goldin, “The Rise of the Fourth Estate,” Corruption and Reform

Gentzkow et al, “The Effect of Newspaper Entry and Exit on Electoral Politics” AER

Wang, “Media, Pulpit, and Populist Persuasion”

*Gentzkow & Shapiro, “What Drives Media Slant?” Ecta

*Dittmar & Seabold, “New Media and Competition,” JPE

4/28: Polarization

Klein, Why We Are Polarized

Gentzkow, Kelly, & Taddy, “Text as Data,” JEL

Jensen et al, “Political Polarization and the Dynamics of Political Language,” Brookings

*Gentzkow, Shapiro, & Taddy, “Measuring Group Diff in High-Dimensional Choices,” Ecta

Methods

Lee & Lemieux, “Regression Discontinuity Designs in Economics,” JEL

Imbens & Wooldridge, “Recent Dev in the Econometrics of Program Evaluation,” JEL

Abadie, “Using Synthetic Controls,” JEL

Abramitzky et al, “Automated Linking of Historical Data,” JEL

Bailey et al, “How Well Do Automated Methods Linking Perform?” JEL

Gentzkow et al, “Text as Data,” JEL

Kline, “Oaxaca-Blinder as a Reweighting Estimator,” AEA P&F

Oster, “Unobservable Selection and Coefficient Stability,” JBES

Sloczynski, “Interpreting OLS Est When Treatment Effects Are Heterogeneous,” ReStat